TourSales.com Fact Sheet

Description

TourSales.com is a Florida-based tour company established in 2013, offering more than 2,500 day tours and activities in hundreds of locations for individuals and small groups. Travelers can book tours through TourSales.com, or through travel agents, airlines, hotels and rental car companies. TourSales.com offers 24-hour support and a money-back guarantee.

Tour Information

High-quality, high-value tours are offered in worldwide destinations. General interest tours are complemented by special interest tours: Exclusive Tours, offering smaller, personalized experiences; Scenic Tours for up-close access to spectacular environments; Cultural Tours for experiences of local customs, and Active Tours for adventuresome vacationers. Special prices are available as “Hot Deals,” which are updated regularly.

TourSales.com vets land operators with a quality assurance program that includes extensive research and reviews by consumers and travel industry partners.

Industry Partners

Travel industry partners -- hotels, travel agents, airlines, and car rental agencies -- integrate TourSales.com’s ecommerce business into their own branded sites and earn commissions of 10-15 percent based on volume.

Who

TourSales.com co-founders, travel executives Mike Bonner and Brad Miller, have wide experience in the cruise industry and global tour operations. They also founded Shore Excursions Group in 2009, now the largest shore excursions company in the world. Bonner and Miller lead a team of seasoned travel professionals with more than 100 years of travel industry experience.
